➤ Three Ponds Semillon, 2011:

This is quite a new label on the scene, but it's classic Hunter Valley semillon - and good value to boot. It's has taut lemon, citrus and herbal flavours interwoven, and then a slatey, minerally finish with long, fine acid. It's not the biggest or brassiest semillon you'll taste, but it's a good one. Good drinking, and if you can get your hands on a snapper or a juicy crab, you're looking pretty good indeed. $20
